This Mortgage made this 17th Seventeenth day of December in the year eighteen hundred and eighty six, by us William D. Ward and William H. Ward of Somerset County in the State of Maryland, witnesseth that in consideration of the sum of Four hundred and ninety seven dollars and twenty one cents, now due from us, the said William D. Ward and William H. Ward to George S. McCready and John B. Nelson, partners trading as McCready & Nelson, in the town of Crisfield Maryland, the same being a balance due for material and work furnished to repair the hereinafter mortgaged Schooner, and we the said William D. Ward and William H. Ward being desirous to secure the payment of the same do hereby grant, bargain and sell unto the said George S. McCready and John B. Nelson, Partners trading as McCready and Nelson, all of the Schooner Daniel J. Ballard of the Port of Crisfield of the burden of fifteen and 57/100 tons Official No 6504 License No 394, together with all the masts sails anchors cables tackle and furniture thereunto belonging.

Provided, that if we the said William D. Ward and William H. Ward, shall pay, on or before the first day of April, in the year eighteen hundred and eighty nine to the said George S. McCready and John B. Nelson partners trading as McCready & Nelson, the said sum of four hundred and ninety seven dollars and twenty one cents, with interest thereon from the date hereof according to the tenor of our three Promissory notes of even date herewith, for one hundred and sixty five dollars and seventy three cents each, payable to the said George S. McCready and John B. Nelson, Partners trading as McCready and Nelson, in the following manner.

Note first for one hundred and sixty five dollars and seventy three cents falls due on the first day of April 1887.

Note second for one hundred and sixty five dollars and seventy three cents falls due on the first day of April 1888. Third and last note for one hundred and sixty five dollars and seventy three cents falls due on the first day of April 1889, with the interest to be paid on all of the notes on the first day of April in each and every year, until the whole amount is paid, then this Mortgage shall be void.

And provided, that if default shall be made in the payment of the money aforesaid, or the interest thereon on either of said notes, at the time or in the manner aforesaid, then it shall be lawful for the said George S. McCready and John B. Nelson, Partners trading as McCready and Nelson, to seize and sell the said Mortgaged Schooner with all the before mentioned appurtenances at Crisfield by public auction for cash, after giving at least ten days public notice of the time, place and terms of sale, by hand bills posted up in ten of the most conspicuous places in the town of Crisfield, prior to the day of sale, and to apply the proceeds of such sale to the payment, in the first place, of the expenses attending said sale, and then to the payment of the said debt, and the surplus, if any, to pay to the said Mortgagors

Know all men by these presents, that we Whittington Dean and Whittington M. T. Dean of Dorchester County Maryland are held and firmly bound unto Henry W. Elliott of Dorchester County Md in the just and full sum of three hundred dollars lawful money of the United States of America to be paid to the said Henry W. Elliott or his Executors, administrators or assigns; for which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators firmly by these presents dated at Bishop's Head this 7th day of Jan 1887

Whereas Henry W. Elliott has this day lent and advanced unto the said Whittington Dean and Whittington M. T. Dean the sum of three hundred dollars, on the body, tackel and appurtenances, of the Schr or vessel called the Maggie J. of Crisfield of the burthen of 7 28/100 tons, or thereabouts the said Whittington Dean and Whittington M T. Dean being the owners of the same, Now the condition of this obligation is such that if the said Whittington Dean and Whittington M. T. Dean shall pay or cause to be paid to the said Henry W. Elliott the said three hundred dollars on or before the 7th day of June 1888 then this obligation to be void or otherwise to remain in full force and virtue, and in consideration of and as security for said loan as aforesaid the said Maggie J is by these presents assigned pledged, mortgaged set over and conveyed to the said Henry W. Elliott heirs and assigns, the certificate of license of vessel is as follows: viz

To have and to hold the said Schooner or vessel and all the other before-mentioned appurtenances unto him the I. Thomas Gibbons and to his executors, administrators, and assigns, forever;
Provided Always, and the condition of these presents is such, that if the said party of the first part, his executors or administrators, shall pay or cause to be paid, to the said party of the second part, his executors, administrators, or assigns, the debt aforesaid, with the interest thereon, at the time or times and in the manner following, to wit: According to the tenor and form of his, the said William A. Price's two promissory notes dated this day, each for the sum of one hundred and sixty eight dollars and eighty-two cents, payable respectively six and twelve months from this day, with interest from this day and payable to the said I. Thomas Gibbons, then these presents shall be void and of no effect; subject, however, to the provisions hereinafter contained; And the said party of the first part hereby agrees to pay the debt aforesaid, and interest thereon, and to fulfill and perform each and every one of the covenants and conditions herein contained. But if default be made in such payments, or in any one of such payments, or if default be made in the prompt and faithful performance of any of the covenants herein contained, or if the said party of the second party shall at anytime deem himself in danger of losing said debt, or any part thereof, by delaying the collection thereof until the expiration of the time above limited for the payment thereof, or if said party of the first part shall sell or attempt to sell said property or any part thereof or if the same shall be levied upon or taken by virtue of any attachment or execution against said first party, or if the said first party shall remove, or attempt to remove, said vessel beyond the limits of the United States, or if the said first party shall suffer and permit said vessel to be run in debt to an amount exceeding in the aggregate the sum of One hundred dollars, or if the said first party shall negligently or willfully permit said property to waste, damage, or destruction, said party of the second part is hereby authorized to take possession of said goods, chattels, and personal property at anytime, wherever found, either before or after the expiration of the time aforsaid, and to sell and convey the same, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to satisfy the said debt, interest, and reasonable expenses, after giving a notice of twenty days, to be given by publication in some news-paper published in Somerset County, Md. and to retain the same out of the proceeds of such sale; the surplus (if any) to belong and to be returned to the said party of the first part. And it is agreed that on such sale the party of the second part, his executors, administrators or assigns may become the purchasers.

Received for record Jany 28th 1887.
Examined & Sent by mail to Robt. F. Brattan Jany 29th 1887.

And it is hereby provided, that it shall be lawful for the said first party, his executors and administrators, to retain possession of the property hereby mortgaged, and at his own expense to use and enjoy the same until said indebtedness shall become due, unless said second party should at an earlier date declare this mortgage forfeited for non-performance of any of the covenants herein contained, or by virtue of any authority hereby conferred on said second part.

In testimony whereof, I the said William A Price have hereunto set my hand and seal this 27th day of January in the year one thousand Eight hundred and Eighty Seven. (1887).

This Mortgage made this Thirty first day of March in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-seven by George W. Somers, one half owner of the Schooner "John H. Adams" of the Port of Crisfield, and Benjamin F. Somers one half owner of said Schooner, both of Somerset County and State of Maryland, witnesseth that whereas we, the said George W. Somers, and Benjamin F. Somers are justly indebted unto George S. McCready and John B. Nelson of said County and State, partners trading under the firm name and Style of McCready & Nelson, in the full sum of three hundred and ninety-three dollars ($393.00) and have given therefor, to the said McCready & Nelson our bill obligatory of even date herewith for said sum and payable in two equal installments of one hundred and ninety six dollars and fifty cents ($196.50/100) each respectively in one and two years, with interest on all of said sums from the date hereof. to better secure the payments of which said sums and interest as they shall become due these presents are executed. Now therefore in Consideration of the premises and of the sum of one Dollar, we the said George W. Somers and Benjamin F. Somers do hereby bargain & sell unto the said George S. McCready and John B. Nelson, partners as aforesaid their executors administrators and assigns all of the said Schooner "John H. Adams" of the Port of Crisfield, Official Number 13,974, of the burden of 42 12/100 tons, together with the masts, bowsprit, sails, boats, anchors, cables, spars, and all other necessaries thereunto appertaining or belonging, to have and to hold the said Schooner and the appurtenances thereto belonging unto them, the said George S. McCready and John B. Nelson partners as aforesaid, their executors, administrators and assigns forever.

Provided that if we the said George W. Somers and Benjamin F. Somers shall pay, or cause to be paid to the said McCready & Nelson the said sum of three hundred and ninety three dollars and all interest thereon accrued when and as the same become due and payable as aforesaid, then this Mortgage shall be void. And it is agreed that if default be made in the payment of the said money or the interest thereon to accrue or any part of either of them at the time limited for the payment of the same, then the entire mortgage debt shall be deemed to be due and demandable, and it shall be lawful for the said George S. McCready and John B. Nelson or N. Walter Dixon, their attorney, at any time after such default to sell the said Schooner, and appurtenances at public auction for cash and to execute a bill of sale for the same to the purchaser thereof; and said said sale shall be made after giving at least twenty days notice of the time, place, manner and terms of sale, in some newspaper published in Somerset County, and in event of such sale the proceeds arising therefrom shall be applied, first to the payment of the expenses incident to such sale, including a commission to the person making the same equal to a Trustees Commission selling by virtue of a decree in Chancery. Secondly to the payment of all claims of said Mortgagees under this Mortgage, whether the same shall have matured or not, and the surplus (if any) shall be paid to the said Mortgagors or to whosoever may be entitled to the same.

Know all men by these presents, that I Henry W. Elliott of Dorchester County Md. am held and firmly bound unto George W. Hayward of Calvert County Maryland in the Just and Full Sum of four hundred dollars, lawful money of the United States of America, to be paid to the said George W. Hayward or his executors, administrators or assigns: for which payment well and truly to be made, I bind myself, my heirs, my Executors and administrators firmly by these presents. Dated at Bishop's Head Md. this 1st day of August in the year 1887. Whereas George W. Hayward has this day lent and advanced unto the said Henry W. Elliott the Sum of four hundred dollars on the body, tackle and appurtenances of the Schr. or Vessel called Fannie E. Hayward of the burthen of 22.16/100 tons or thereabout, the said Henry W. Elliott being the Owner of the same. Now the Condition of this obligation is such that if the Henry W. Elliott shall pay or cause to be paid to the said George W. Hayward the Sum of four hundred dollars the amount loaned and interest thereon on or before the 1st day of August 1888 then this obligation shall be void, otherwise to remain in full force and virtue; and in consideration of and as Security for said loan as aforesaid, the said Vessel is by these presents assigned, pledged, mortgaged, set over and conveyed to the said George W. Hayward, heirs and assigns; the Certificate of the Enrollment of which vessel is as follows; viz;

Certificate No. 9

The United States of America.

Enrollment in conformity to Title L. Regulation of Vessels in domestic Commerce of the Revised Statutes of the United States.

Wm J. Mister, of Calvert Co Md having taken and subscribed the oath required by law, and having sworn that George W. Hayward of Calvert Co. Md is a citizen of the United States and sole owner of the ship or vessel called the Fannie E. Hayward of Town Creek, whereof Wm. J. Mister is at present master and is a citizen of the United States, and that the said ship or vessel was built at Solomon's Island in the year 1883 as appears by her Enr. No. 148 granted at Baltimore Jan. 16 1885 now surrendered, new one granted, And said Enrollment having certified that the said ship or vessel has one deck and two masts and that her length is 60 feet, her breadth is 16 8/10 feet, her depth 4 7/10 feet — that she measures 22 16/100 tons.

It being mutually understood and agreed that in case the amount of said loan and interest, or any part thereof, according to the terms of these presents, shall remain due and unpaid to the said

George W. Hayward after the expiration of twelve months, the said George W. Hayward may take possession of said Fannie E. Hayward and appurtenances, and sell the same at public auction in order to satisfy the amount then due, without any proceedings in Court or otherwise, for the purpose of authorizing such sale, and thereupon may execute and deliver a sufficient bill of sale to transfer completely to any purchaser or purchasers, all title and property in and to the said Schr. and appurtenances, to the said Henry W. Elliott as owner thereof now belonging, the said George W. Hayward thereupon to account to the said Henry W. Elliott for any surplus of such sale, after paying all charges and expenses. And in case of such sale as aforesaid, the said Henry W. Elliott, executors, administrators or assigns, shall whenever thereto requested make execute and deliver to such purchaser, or purchasers another bill of sale of said Fannie E. Hayward and appurtenances in which the Enrollment shall be recited as above for the transferring completely to the said purchaser or purchasers all the right, interest and claim of said Henry W. Elliott or assigns as owners of the Schr. and in default of the prompt execution and delivery of such other bill of sale to such purchaser or purchasers by the said Henry W. Elliott when thereto requested, the said George W. Hayward is hereby constituted and appointed the legal attorney of the said Henry W. Elliott for the purpose of making, executing and delivering such bill of sale, and the said Henry W. Elliott hereby ratifies and confirms the act of the said George W. Know all men by these presents, That William Henderson, of Somerset County State of Maryland (waterman) is held and firmly bound unto George Nebeker, Theodore J. Winn, Aquila Nebeker, Frederic A. Acker, and Francis Buchman M.D. the Mortgagees in the just and full sum of Two thousand Dollars, Dollars, lawful money of the United States of America, to be paid to the said Mortgagees their heirs executors, administrators, or assigns; for which payment well and truly to be made, I bind myself, my heirs, executors and administrators firmly by these presents Dated at Princess Anne Md. this twenty fourth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and Eighty five (1885)

Whereas the said Mortgagees have this day lent and advanced unto the said William Henderson the sum of one thousand dollars, on the body, tackle, and appurtenances, of the Schooner, or vessel call the Joshua Green of the burden of nineteen $\frac{23}{100}$ (registered) tons, or thereabouts; and said William Henderson being the sole owner of same,

Now the Condition of this obligation is such, That if the said William Henderson shall pay or cause to be paid to the said George Nebeker, Theo. J. Winn, Aquila Nebeker, Fred. A. Acker, and Francis Buchman the Mortgagees the sum of one thousand dollars, the amount loaned and interest thereon in one month from the date hereof then this obligation to be void: otherwise, to remain in full force and virtue. And in consideration of and as security for said loan as aforesaid, the said vessel Joshua Green, is by these presents assigned, pledged, mortgaged, set over and conveyed to the said Mortgagees their heirs and assigns; the Certificate of the Enrollment of which vessel is as follows.

It being mutually understood and agreed, that in case the amount of said loan and interest, or any part thereof, according to the terms of these presents, shall remain due, and unpaid to the said Mortgagees, after the expiration of said time the said Mortgagees may take possession of said vessel and appurtenances, and sell the same at Public Auction, in order to satisfy the amount then due, without any proceedings in Court, or otherwise, for the purpose of authorizing such sale, and thereupon may execute and deliver a sufficient bill of sale to transfer completely to any purchaser or purchasers, all title and property in and to the said vessel, and appurtenances, to the said Mortgagees, as absolute owners thereof, now belonging. The said Mortgagees thereupon to account to the said William Henderson for any surplus of such sale, after paying all charges and expenses. And in case of such sale as aforesaid, The said William Henderson his executors, administrators, or assigns, shall, whenever thereto requested, make, execute and deliver to said purchaser or purchasers, another bill of sale of said vessel and appurtenances, in which the Enrollment shall be recited as above, for the transferring completely to such purchaser or purchasers, all the right, interest, and claim of said William Henderson his executors, administrators, or Assigns, as sole owner of said vessel. And in default of the prompt execution and delivery of such other bill of sale to such purchaser, or purchasers, by the said William Henderson, when thereto requested, the said Mortgagees are hereby constituted and appointed the legal attorney of the said William Henderson for the purpose of making, executing and delivering such bill of sale; and the said William Henderson hereby ratifies and confirms the act of the said Mortgagees as his attorney for said purpose And it is hereby further agreed, that Insurance shall be made at some office in Philadelphia City, State of Pennsylvania, on the said vessel for the security of the said Mortgagees to an amount not less than the sum loaned as aforesaid, and the said Mortgagees are hereby authorized to procure such insurance, at the expense of the said William Henderson, if not seasonably obtained by him

This mortgage made this 28th day of October 1887, by Andrew J. Tigner of Somerset County Maryland, witnesseth that whereas one Stephen Alfred Jones in his life time, he being now deceased, built a "bug eye" or double end schooner, on Big Monie Creek, on Benjamin H. Foxwell's wharf together with James A. Phoebus, and Vaughn M. Foxwell the said Jones being one half owner, & the said Phoebus & Foxwell, owners, one fourth each, of said schooner, or bug eye, and the said owners did, in the life time of said deceased, contract to sell the said vessel when ready for launching to me Andrew J. Tigner aforesaid, at and for the sum of Five hundred & seventy five dollars, to be paid as follows, one hundred dollars cash and the residue in five equal payments, due respectively January the 20th 1888, April 20th 1888, January 1st 1889, April 1st 1889, and January 1st 1890, and whereas the said Stephen Alfred Jones, has since departed this life and Benjamin H. Foxwell has taken out letters of administration on the Estate of the said Jones, in the Orphans Court for Somerset County and whereas the said schooner is now ready for launching & the said sum of one hundred Dollars has been duly paid, and I the said Andrew am, desirous of securing the payment of the said deferred payments or sums of money, now in consideration of the above recited premises I the said Andrew J. Tigner have granted bargained & sold & do hereby grant bargain & sell unto Benjamin H. Foxwell, administrator of Stephen Alfred Jones aforesaid, deceased, all that schooner or bug eye built by the said Jones, Phoebus & Vaughn M. Foxwell in the summer & Fall of 1887 at the place aforesaid, length about fifty feet and width about fourteen feet, and not yet named delivered to me this day on and after the execution

& delivery of these presents to be held & enjoyed by them in the proportions hereinbefore set out. & This Mortgage is upon this condition that if I the said Andrew J. Tignor shall pay the said sums of money with interest thereon from the date hereof on the days herein before set forth, according to the terms of the bills obligatory executed herewith unto the said Benjamin H. Foxwell, administrator of Stephen A. Jones, Vaughn M. Foxwell and James A. Phoebus then this obligation to be void, but if I the said Andrew shall fail or neglect to pay the said sums of money or any of them with interest, at the time or times specified herein & in said bills obligatory, then the whole sum of Four hundred & Seventy five dollars with interest or so much thereof as has not been paid at the time of default shall immediately thereon become due & payable & the mortgagees may immediately seize & take into possession the said Schooner, or bugeye, with all her boats, tackle apparel & appurtenances, and sell her at public auction after having given ten days notice of the time, place, manner & terms of sale, which said terms shall be cash and the said Mortgagees or any of them, or the Executors, administrators or assigns of them or any of them may make and execute a good and sufficient bill of Sale therefor to the purchaser or purchasers at said sale & after paying the said debt & interest & all the costs & expenses of said sale the said mortgagees them or any of them, Executors, administrators, or assigns shall pay the residue to the said Andrew J.
